

Company Profile:

Brightfilter provides enterprise-grade Internet filtering and security technology to Education Authorities and schools in the form of managed services including consultation and specialist support. Services range from highly advanced city-wide filtering infrastructures to single pc user-friendly web-based parental control software.

Job Title: Systems Engineer

Job Summary: Working as part of the technical team at Brightfilter, you will maintain and develop customer and Internal web facing systems and the infrastructure they run on, supporting both customers and work colleagues.

Place of work: Brightfilter Offices, Queen Square, Bath with periodic visits to data premises and customer locations.

Core Responsibilities:

- Maintenance and development of customer facing and internal web-based services
- Pro-Active maintenance of company IT infrastructure
 - Web Servers, Linux Servers, Cisco Devices
 - E-Mail, Company Desktops
- Supporting customers and staff

Required Skills/Experience:

- Microsoft Windows 2003 Administration
- Active Directory, Exchange Server
- ASP (vbScript), javascript, CSS and XHTML
- Microsoft SQL

Beneficial Skills:

- PHP
- MySQL

- Linux Administration incl. Shell Scripting

Desirable Skills:

- Cisco PIX Firewall, Switch and Router configuration
- Knowledge of Filtering techniques and technologies

Hours of Work: 37.5hrs a week.

Apply

Once you find a vacancy that interests you, you can apply by emailing your CV along with an idea of salary expectations to jobs@brightfilter.com. Within 48 hours, you'll receive confirmation that we have received your application.

We'll let you know if you will be invited to an interview within two weeks.